

Our Economic Development Services

- Contact information:
 - Chad Burke, President/CEO
 - office: 281-867-1112, ext. 14
 - chad@allianceportregion.com
- Assurance of Confidentiality
 - Use of code name for project
 - Confidentiality agreements available
- Background and services of the Economic Alliance Houston Port Region
 - Non-profit organization which provides economic development services for Houston port and industrial region
 - Contracts with Harris County, Port of Houston Authority and ten cities to provide facilitation for new companies/expansions at no charge:
 - Tax abatements
 - Site Availability Research - property transaction consulting to ensure tax abatement requirements are met
 - Public hearings
 - Foreign trade zones
 - Navigation of governmental process - local, state and federal
 - Enterprise zones
 - Financing Tools, including Industrial Revenue Bond financing
 - Community interface regarding safety and environmental issues
 - Availability of Emerging Technology incentives in Texas
 - Guidance on timing for your press release announcements to ensure optimal marketing, community relations, and incentive requirements
 - Introductions to industry, governmental and other critical networking forums
 - Guidance on local protocols regarding ribbon cuttings
 - Availability of more than 100 types of data reports for region
 - Introductions to task forces addressing public policy concerns in port region, including, but not limited to small business, international trade and petrochemical and refining manufacturing
- We will schedule an introductory meeting at your convenience to help you begin developing a comparative analysis of site selection; later leading up to helping you complete applications for tax abatements and other incentive offerings.